

Have you ever wondered what it means to be an equitable employer in your own home?

Do you employ a housekeeper?
A nanny? An elder care worker?

Join CURE for this important FREE workshop that will help us create dignified and respectful working conditions that benefit the employer and worker alike.

Register now!

Thursday, November 7, 2019

WHEN: Thursday, November 7, 2019

WHERE: Larchmont Avenue Church

TIME: 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM

WHAT: (are you getting yourself into?)

The workshop will be guided by Tatiana Bejar, Worker Advocate from Hand in Hand and Jirandy Martinez Executive Director from Community Resource Center in Mamaroneck.

- HEAR stories of workplace challenges from local babysitters, cleaning women and more
- LEARN about the newly passed NY State Domestic Workers Bill of Rights
- REVIEW work agreements and checklists that you can use in your own home

BECOME A SUPPORTER

Keep our events FREE!

Help us lead hard but critical conversations around race & racism cure!

THE COALITION FOR UNDERSTANDING RACISM THROUGH EDUCATION

FREE! Register now! www.learnwithcure.com