One Stitch at a Time, Barbara Wexler Quilting

Barbara Wexler is an artist/quilter who has been a resident of White Plains for more than 50 years and taught fine art in White Plains and Hastings public schools. Her art training was in printmaking, but she works in all media and teaches classes in her home studio. She began quilting about 10 years ago and exhibits her work at shows in Westchester and New York. She has at least a dozen quilts ready for sale, and can be contacted below:
